INTERIOR SECRETARY LUJAN APPOINTS TWO MEMBERS TO NATIONAL FISH AND WILDLIFE FOUNDATION
BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Secretary of the Interior Manuel Lujan today announced the appointment of Neil Oldridge and J. C. Perkins to the Board of Directors of the National Fish and Wildlife Foundation.

Oldridge, Worldwide Director of Sales for the Du Pont Sporting Goods Division of which the Remington Arms Company and the Fishing Products Group are a part, will become a member of the board on November 30, 1992, for a six-year term.

Perkins, Vice President for General Motors and General Manager for Chevrolet Motor Division, joins the board immediately to complete a term ending June 30, 1993.

The new appointees join Magalen O. Bryant, Ken Hofmann, Thomas McMillan, John L. Morris, David Rockland, Steve Robinson, and Brigadier General Chuck Yeager as members of the board.

The foundation was established by Congress as a charitable and nonprofit corporation for the purpose of encouraging, accepting and administering private gifts of property for the benefit of the U.S. Fish and wildlife Service.

The Board of Directors advises the Secretary on ways to enhance the Service's goals and programs.
